

Primary 5 have been participating in a workshop with Dekko Comics to learn new strategies to remember numeracy facts.

We have been using our estimating skills by guessing the number of cubes in a jar.

We have been taking part in a Money Sense workshop which is helping us to learn about energy and sustainability as well as how to save money.

