

Maths Week Scotland

The Sunshine Room have been working on place value, addition including new strategies and problem solving. We have also been using technology to play maths games and complete numeracy tasks.

